Meditation in the Puritan Tradition

At St Mary's Catholic church hall

52 East Street, Papakura

10am to 3pm

Richard Baxter (1615-1691) Puritan minister and author of more than 800 treatises on religion, is a seminal and somewhat controversial figure in the history of the English Reformation. He was also a meditator. Vincent Maire will introduce Richard Baxter and provide context to the times in which he lived. What made Baxterian meditation unique and its place in the great tradition of Christian contemplative prayer, will form part of Vincent's presentation.

Vincent is the WCCM-NZ Auckland regional coordinator and was recently appointed to the WCCM Guiding Board. He is a novice oblate and a long-time member of the Christian meditation group that meets weekly at St Francis by the Sea in Manly, Whangaparaoa.
