

PEACE that the World Cannot Give

January 16th – 19th 2023 Silent Retreat

University of Waikato, Hamilton, NZ

Led by Kath Houston, a WCCM Director

We live in turbulent times with the pressures of climate change and natural disasters, the covid pandemic, wars and violence. More and more people are asking how can we find peace?

We need to understand what peace means, yet it is beyond understanding. The only power that can create peace in our world is the power of peace found, known and experienced in human hearts. Meditation takes us to that place beyond understanding where mystery is known and knows us.

In this retreat we will journey deep into our hearts to explore this mystery and uncover the wellspring of peace that is to be found there.

Meditation is utter simplicity.....John Main

Kath Houston

Kath has been meditating for nearly 20 years and has been an active member of WCCM throughout this time. She lives in the bayside suburb of Wynnum in Brisbane, Australia.

In 2014 after spending a year at the Meditatio House in London with Fr Laurence Freeman, Kath retired from a career as a lawyer to focus full time on voluntary work with WCCM.

As coordinator of the School of Meditation in Australia and a member of the international School team Kath has led many retreats, quiet days and workshops throughout Australia and other parts of the world and has helped to develop a number of teaching resources.

Kath currently serves as Director of Liaison with National Coordinators and is a member of the WCCM Guiding Board.

After spending a year in formation at Meditatio House in London, Kath retired from a career in law to focus full time on voluntary work with WCCM.

Kath will give presentations relating to her theme.

Throughout each day there will be a number of periods of meditation and liturgical prayer times, with opportunities to explore the gardens, talk with an experienced Christian meditator and visit the retreat bookshop. The retreat will be in silence from Monday evening until Thursday late morning.
